

PA LIONS BEACON LODGE CAMP

News Letter

Spring 2025

Spring is in Full Swing at Beacon Lodge!

As the beauty of spring unfolds across our campgrounds, excitement is growing for the upcoming camping season at PA Lions Beacon Lodge Camp! The spirit of renewal and community has already been hard at work, thanks to the incredible volunteers from Districts 14-C, 14-L, 14-N, and 14-T who recently joined us for Work Weekends.

During these weekends, volunteers and staff rolled up their sleeves and tackled a wide range of important projects — from sprucing up cabins and clearing trails to painting, repairs, and preparing activity areas for the summer ahead. Their dedication, hard work, and cheerful energy have made a tremendous difference, and we are deeply grateful for their ongoing support. Because of their efforts, Beacon Lodge is looking better than ever and ready to welcome our campers for a season full of new adventures, growth, and lasting friendships. We cannot wait to open our gates and see the joy on our new and returning campers' faces as they experience the magic that only Beacon Lodge can provide.

Thank you again to all who have volunteered, donated, and supported our mission. Together, we are building a stronger community and ensuring that Beacon Lodge remains a place for those with special needs to enjoy for years to come.

See you soon at camp!

Exciting News from PA Lions Beacon Lodge Camp!

We were thrilled to host our first-ever Community Day and Egg Hunt at PA Lions Beacon Lodge Camp! This special event marked the beginning of a new tradition, bringing together families, friends, and supporters to celebrate community, fun, and the joy of spring.

Guests enjoyed a day filled with laughter, games, and adventure during an exciting egg hunt for children of all ages, along with activities that showcased the spirit and mission of Beacon Lodge. It was a wonderful opportunity for everyone to meet our camp family, learn more about our programs, and experience the magic that happens here every year.

We were overjoyed to welcome the members of our community and share this unforgettable day together!
